You're all I could hope would happen
You happen to be
The only site I see
Can it really be
You like what you see in me

One like you
Is one too much for me
Unless you mean to be
My own

Once like now
It's better not to start
Unless I have your heart
Alone

When all is said and done
It's best not begun
Till one and only one
Will do

So look before you fall
For love's beyond recall
Unless it's one for all
For two

Nights like this
Are more than I can stand
Unless you take my hand
And say

One like you
Is one too much to lose
With one like you I choose
To stay

Once I met a day
Made of all things lovely
And I said hello day
I'm glad we met
And the day said back
You've seen nothing yet

Then we spoke of love
Praising all things lovely
Will today be my day
I had to know
And the day said wait
For the sun to show

The morning's not begun yet
Who knows where we'll be by sunset
We still have a whole lot of hours to go

Then I met the boy
And he said he'd love me
And here we'd stay
For he somehow
Listen now
Once he met a day

One very small wish

One very small hope

One very small voice in the night

One very small wish

From one very true heart

Could set the world aright

So start with a wish

One very small wish

And see how it grows and grows

Just one very small wish

From one very true heart

Wishing well to one very true friend

And soon

All our troubles will end

Soon, all our troubles will end

Have a heart
Have a heart and when you do
Have a heart
For a heart that beats for you

Have a dream
Dreamed all alone
No one has known
No one has shared
Lips yours from the first
Still unrehearsed
Yet so prepared

Have a blast
At the stars that shine above
Take a chance
On the stars and fall in love
When they all seem to be right
They'll come a night
You can't decline
If you do
Have a heart
Have mine

If I had a soft shoe
I would do a little dance for you
Maybe push a grain of sand or two
But only for you

And if I had a horn
I would play a little tune for you
Maybe blow a big bassoon for true
But only for you

Nothin gonna stop me
Nothins gonna top me
If I had a change
I'd do a dance
I'd dance like Fred Astaire

And if I had a plane
Nothin but the latest jet would do
Fly to Paris for a snack
Fly you right back
But only for you

If I played a poker game
I would have a royal flush for you
Maybe win a half a mil or two
But only for you

And if I had a boat
I would keep the thing a float for you
Be the captain of the ship I'm hip
But only for you

Nothin gonna wap me
Nothins gonna zap me

Yes I've got my roots
But you bet your boots
But bet them on Fred Astaire

When its all said and done
Won't you tell me I'm the only one
Who can make your every dream come true
But Only for you
It's all here baby
But only for you

There's something uplifting in the air
That will not go away
Something that's drifting everywhere
That keeps the blues at bay

So listen
Here's the thing
It might just, be the spring

Trees are leafing out like music
Tulips open up their eyes
Winds are warmer than a muffler
Summer's coming in disguise

Girls are dressing now and dresses
Clouds are soft and white as sheep
Grass is green enough for mowing.
Earth is soft enough for sleep

The thing of it is
The swing of it is
We've had the cold and ice
The spell of it is
The swell of it is
Each day is feeling pretty nice

Nights are full of people strolling
Eyes are wide with songs to sing
It's a risky proposition
But it might just be spring

I fall in love in the springtime
It's just a thing that I do
I am quite let a stray by a bright and sunny day
Or a sky made of innocent blue

I fall in love in the springtime
A fate that I can't avoid
Though I do try my best to remain so unimpressed
While my heart spins around overjoyed

Overjoyed by each tulip and crocus
Overjoyed by the birds in a tree
Too, delighted to find any focus
To enchanted by all I can see

I fall in love in the springtime
I doubt there's much I can do
For the rest of the year my emotions all run clear

Still it's true
Spring appears
Bringing love
And you

Boy, do I have a surprise for you
Gee I can hardly wait to tell you

I won't drop a hint
I won't give a clue
I will only say that it's new and shiny

Boy, do I have a surprise for you
Gee I can hardly wait to show you

You can't find it in a store
But it's yours forever evermore
And best of all
It's full of fun and it's free

Boy, do I have a surprise for you
Surprise
Your surprise
Is me

Crossroads, wondering
What am I to do
Coming, going
Brought me to right now
Each step
Lead me to you

I see future
Joyful and free
Finally someone
Made just for me
Our song
Our love's all I see

Pain worry
Sometimes shows it face
Its all behind us
A new life to embrace

No more heartache
Life's ours to be lived
Sunshine rainbows
All love that is true
My love
My heart is with you
Only you
